Ray Westman Owner, Verlo Mattress

"Fortunately, our industry has done an excellent job of educating consumers on the importance of a good night's sleep."

People's bodies change over time, but most of the time, their mattresses don't. The result? Back and joint problems, poor sleep, stress and fatigue caused by lack of proper rest.

But Ray Westman, owner of the Verlo Mattress Factory Stores in Crystal Lake, McHenry and Lake Geneva, is committed to helping customers find healthy, restful sleep, not only when their Verlo Mattress is brand new, but also when it's years old.

"Everyone changes and it's not realistic to think you're going to need exactly the same kind of mattress ten years from now that you need today. What we custom build for you now, can be adjusted or repaired to fit your needs in the future," Westman said.

Specializing in custom-built sleep systems, Wisconsin-based Verlo Mattress was founded in 1958 and now has more than forty franchise locations.

Westman has been with Verlo Mattress since 1985, and purchased his first Verlo store in 1994. He now owns three showrooms, and a production facility in McHenry.

In a time when mattresses are sold at big box and discount stores, in addition to mattress retailers, Westman is proud to offer something more than the typical cookie-cutter approach. "Your body, your comfort needs and sleep habits all influence the kind of sleep set we build for you," he said.

Your perfect sleep begins at the Verlo showroom, or online with the Verlo Virtual Craftsman. "We'll discuss who is using the mattress, a single person or a couple, a child or a teen, your preferred sleeping position, back or neck issues, and firmness preference. Often, the craftsman who will build your mattress is the person helping you on the sales floor," Westman said.

Using top quality materials, trained craftsmen construct your sleep system locally, the day before it is delivered.

Bucking the trend toward shorter-life no-flip mattresses, Verlo still builds two-sided mattresses, something informed, quality-conscious customers appreciate. "The people who buy from us understand the continuing value of a custom-designed locally built product," Westman said.

In addition to innerspring mattresses, Verlo also carries Visco Foam, Gel Foam, VerloAIRE beds, sleep accessories to complete your custom sleep system, adjustable beds and futon sofa sleepers in a wide variety of styles.

In a tight economy, Westman understands that customers' budgets are stretched tighter than ever before. "Because customers have less disposable income, the reality means that we're competing against other needs, ranging from a new refrigerator to car repair. Fortunately, our industry has done an excellent job of educating consumers on the importance of a good night's sleep," he said.

Woodstock is the bustling county seat of McHenry County, Illinois. Our local businesses are second to none in meeting and exceeding the needs of residents and visitors, while at the same time maintaining the quaint sense of community charm for which Woodstock is famous.

The Woodstock Chamber of Commerce has been supporting Woodstock business, sponsoring great community events, and promoting its membership for over 65 years.

On behalf of the Woodstock Chamber of Commerce & Industry, welcome to our annual Woodstock Community & Visitor Guide. This annual Community Guide is your best source for discovering the wealth of resources available to Woodstock residents and visitors. Enjoy information on economic development, chamber events, and local attractions.

As you use this Guide as a valuable tool, you'll be impressed with the numerous goods and services available in our community. For even more up-to-date information on member businesses and services in Woodstock, visit the Chamber's informational website: www.woodstockilchamber.com.

The Chamber's members warmly welcome you to Woodstock and hope that you consider them as you "shop local first" when purchasing products, procuring services, and seeking out dining establishments and entertainment venues. The whole community benefits when we chose to shop locally.

Welcome

The City of Woodstock

On behalf of the City and its residents, welcome to Woodstock, a growing, vibrant community with strong commitments to long-held historic, cultural, educational, healthy-living, and healthy-environment values.

First established in 1844, our City was called Centerville, referencing its central location in McHenry County and the fact that it serves as the seat of our county government. In 1845, Centerville was renamed Woodstock and has celebrated significant recognition over the years, being named an All America City in 1964, a Certified City in 1987, a National Trust Distinctive Destination in 2007, and most recently, a Preserve America Community. The Woodstock Square is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and rests in the center of the City's Historic District. Pillars of the district include the historic Woodstock Opera House, theatrical home of renowned performers Orson Welles, Paul Newman, Betsy Palmer, Tom Bosley, Shelley Berman, Lois Nettleton and Geraldine Page, and the Old Courthouse, today's home of the Old Courthouse Arts Center. Surrounding the Square are a number of beautifully restored Victorian homes, many of which have been plaqued by the Historic Preservation Commission in recognition of their significance to the City's history and architectural diversity.

Woodstock is the centerpiece of the region's visual and performing arts community. Each year there are more than 500 performances at the Woodstock Opera House, including the highly acclaimed Woodstock Mozart Festival performed weekends in August. February 2nd marks Groundhog Day as the community waits for our own Woodstock Willie to make his prognostication. Wednesday nights during the months of June and July will find residents in the Park in the Square enjoying evening concerts performed by the Woodstock City

Band, a tradition for more than 130 consecutive years! Tuesdays and Saturdays from May through October find the Farmers' Market, ranked number one in the State of Illinois and in the top ten nationwide for three years in a row, open for business. The Square is alive every weekend throughout the summer with arts and crafts shows, festivals, weddings, the annual Memorial Day Parade and welcome home celebrations for our returning service men and women. A day of shopping in Woodstock's unique and inviting stores recalls memories of scenes and personalities associated with the Dick Tracy cartoon. Chester Gould, creator and cartoonist of the famed police detective, lived in Woodstock and based many of his characters and stories on local events, buildings, and people. A walk around the downtown area also provides the opportunity to stop at many locations identified by plaques as the site of important scenes in the movie Groundhog Day filmed in Woodstock in 1992.

Regardless of the reason for visiting the City, a day in Woodstock is nicely topped off by an evening of dining at any of the City's many fine dining establishments. Square restaurants offer outdoor dining during the summer and cozy indoor fares in fall and winter. And, the Square in winter is simply not to be missed. Nothing is more spectacular than the traditional Lighting of the Square ceremony as trees and buildings become ablaze with light in preparation for the holidays. A winter evening is truly incomplete without a horse drawn carriage ride over the brick streets or a leisurely stroll under the magic of the winter lights.

Woodstock consistently demonstrates its commitment to quality education. Community Unit School District 200 offers two high schools, two middle schools, six elementary schools, the Verda Dierzen Early Learning Center, and Clay Academy. Currently, 1,900 students in the District are enrolled in their award-winning dual language program, recognized by the Government of Spain as an International Spanish Academy, in which students receive instruction in all curricula in both English and Spanish. Additionally, Woodstock is home to St. Mary Catholic School and Marian Central Catholic High School. The community supports a state-of-the-art public library, complete with children's center, reading room, internet access and community room. Just a few short miles from McHenry County College, Woodstock offers easy access to traditional college courses, as well as numerous adult education classes. The City is also home to the Challenger Learning Center. Dedicated as a memorial to the crew of the ill-fated Challenger space flight, the Center provides science exploration and team building programs for youth and adults alike. The site also hosts the Woodstock Center of nationally known Aurora University, now offering an M.B.A. in Leadership, an M.S. in Nursing, and doctoral degrees in education with leadership emphasis in the areas of Adult and Higher Education, Curriculum and Instruction, and Educational Administration.

Our community also offers truly exceptional health care and senior living facilities. Centegra Hospital Woodstock has evolved from a small, hometown hospital established in Woodstock in 1914 to a leader in innovative medical treatment, including the Gavers Breast Cancer Center and a Hospice Inpatient Care Home. Mercy Woodstock Medical Center opened in 1999, offering health care services dedicated to broad-based healing. For over 125 years, Hearthstone Communities has provided quality senior living options and opportunities for senior citizens and their families with an emphasis on passionate, family-oriented senior care.

With nearly 550 acres of parkland and many more acres of open space, Woodstock demonstrates a strong commitment to maintaining its individual character and identity within a larger growing region. Through partnerships with the McHenry County Conservation District, The Land Conservancy, and the Environmental Defenders of McHenry County, the City actively works to conserve and preserve precious natural resources. Thanks to the efforts of the Defenders and a strong collaboration with municipal and county governments, McHenry County was the first in the State of Illinois to mandate a curbside recycling program. Environmental protection is truly a way of life in Woodstock. And for those interested in sports and recreation, the City offers the Woodstock Water Works aquatic center; the Woodstock Recreation Center, with a full range of health and fitness equipment and programs; a 2.5 mile walking/running path in Emricson Park; and numerous soccer fields and ball diamonds throughout the City for both leagues and families to enjoy.

As our City motto states, Woodstock is "True to its past and confident of its future." Whether visiting for a day, a weekend, or living in Woodstock, we're glad you're here. Welcome to our home!

in 1889 and once served as the city hall, library, and fire department. Performers who spent their early years on the Opera House stage include Orson Welles and Paul Newman.

Listed in the National Register of Historic Places, the historic Woodstock Square is the perfect venue for a leisurely day of shopping Woodstock's unique stores situated along cobblestone streets amidst the quaint charm of 19th century architecture. Afterwards enjoy an evening of fine dining and live entertainment. Round out your Woodstock adventure by spending the night at one of the city's quaint bed and breakfasts or more formal hotel environments.

Historic Structures

Two historic structures dominate the Woodstock Square – the Woodstock Opera House and the Old Courthouse & Sheriff's House complex. The Romanesque-style Opera House was erected

Today the Opera House remains the cultural entertainment center of Woodstock. Plays, concerts, and performances are scheduled at the Opera House throughout the year, including the nationally renowned Woodstock Mozart Festival held each summer. Performance schedules are available at the ticket office in the Opera House lobby.

The Old Courthouse, a simple Italianate structure built in 1857 under the design of famed architect John Mills Van Osdel, is similar to the Cook County Courthouse of 1853 that was destroyed in the Great Chicago Fire. The Sheriff's House and Jail were constructed in 1887. In 1894, Eugene Debs (union leader and Socialist Party Presidential candidate) was held there for refusing to com-

Events and Festivals

Throughout the year, the historic Woodstock Square is host to many events, festivals, and fairs. Events on the Square include Fair Diddley in May (featuring over 300 crafter's booths), summer band concerts, the Farmer's Market from May through October, Woodstock Folk Festival in July, the Mozart Festival in August, Harvest Fest in September that features a Fiddlers competition along with the Fair In the Square Craft Show. A perennial highlight of the year is Woodstock's Groundhog Day Festival – celebrating Woodstock's starring as Punxsutawney, PA in the 1993 Bill Murray comedy film classic "Groundhog Day."

Not to be missed is Woodstock's Victorian Christmas celebration that begins each Thanksgiving weekend. The Lighting of the Square fills the Square with thousands of miniature lights illuminating the buildings and trees. Carolers stroll the streets and a horse-drawn carriage transports visitors around the Square. Refreshments are available while you search local shops for the perfect gift.

Shopping

You'll find everything from gifts to keepsakes among the shops lining the historic Woodstock Square. Products include hand-crafted pottery, apparel, gifts and collectibles, toys, original art, antiques, and exquisite jewelry. There is something for every taste and budget.

And speaking of taste, the dining options on the Square and throughout Woodstock are a delight of the senses – from informal to formal.

We hope you'll enjoy your visit to the Woodstock Square and our community. We're sure you'll want to visit often!

Real WOODSTOCK

47 miles from Chicago, Woodstock is close to the city with a small town, rural personality all our own. Rich with Victorian architecture, a town square that seems frozen in time, and a world-renowned Opera House, Woodstock also has a progressive streak brimming with creativity. Our school system is a leader in dual language education. Artists and locally-owned businesses are embraced. And music, whether rock, folk, jazz, country or classical, fills the air indoors and out most every night.

Plan a visit. Grow a business. Put down roots. Make a life here in Real Woodstock.

Woodstock Tourism

The picturesque community of Woodstock is alive with a bountiful array of events and attractions that make the city a prime tourist attraction and thrilling place to live.

Groundhog Day

In 1991 director Harold Ramis chose Woodstock as the location for shooting the comedy classic film "Groundhog Day". It has made Woodstock an endless point of interest, bringing visitors from all over the world. The Woodstock Public Library and City Hall have information and exhibits on the filming of the movie.

In addition, Woodstock is host to the annual Ground Hog Day Festival that pays homage to the film and includes a walking tour of sites in the movie, as well as the groundhog's prediction for when winter will end.

Dick Tracy

Chester Gould, who created the Dick Tracy comic strip which ran 1931 to 1977, was a native of Woodstock. The Dick Tracy comic strip originally premiered in the Detroit Mirror, then in the New York Daily News, followed by the Chicago Tribune, and then on to nationwide syndication, and eventually to international audiences. The crime fighting adventures of Gould's Dick Tracy character were so popular that the comic strip appeared on the front page of the New York Daily News for 45 consecutive years, and it was seen in 27 foreign papers.

Events & Attractions

The month of August sizzles with such offerings as a car show, Mozart Festival, as well as concerts in the park. The Woodstock Autumn Drive features local artisans at work in the homes. Also in August, the eagerly anticipated McHenry County Fair fills Woodstock with rides, games, and foods for every taste.

Of course these are just a sampling of the year-round offerings of fun activities celebrating Woodstock's unique charm. Among other popular events hosted by Woodstock are the Fair Diddle Craft Show in May, Farmers Market running May through October, the Woodstock Folk festival and Summer in the Park in July, the Old-Fashioned HarvestFest/Fiddlers Contest & Fair In The Square Craft Show in September, and the ever popular Lighting of the Square in late November that kicks off the holiday season.

The Woodstock Police Department includes sworn police officers and detectives, civilian employees, community service officers and school crossing guards. They perform police protection patrol services, non-patrol and investigative functions, community services, parking enforcement, traffic safety, communications/record functions and administrative services.

The department also provides a wide variety of community services and programs, some of which are listed below:

- Crime Stoppers
- Child Identification Program

- Property Identification
- Vacation House Surveillance
- Classroom Education Programs
- Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.)
- North Central Narcotics Task Force

Woodstock Fire/Rescue District

Non-Emergency Number

815-338-2621

The Woodstock Fire/Rescue District provides two important public safety services for the Woodstock area residents: fire and rescue protection. Due to their high quality, properties within the district enjoy a very low fire insurance rating for home and business owners. B.O.C.A. fire and building codes are enforced in the construction of all new structures in the district.

Firefighters and paramedics conduct fire inspection and safety education programs throughout the year. 85% of the members are cross-trained in fire and medical emergencies. Paid, on-premise members provide for 24 hour on-duty response to all medical incidents. Future plans provide for more personnel on duty to also respond to fire incidents.

Education

Woodstock North High School

Woodstock Community Unit School District 200

Woodstock School District 200 serves approximately 6,700 students in grades PreK-12 who live in the communities of Woodstock, Bull Valley, Greenwood, the west side of Wonder Lake, and unincorporated McHenry County. The school district was formed in 1969 when two elementary districts and one high school district consolidated, but education in Woodstock actually dates back to 1847. Today our schools offer a strong standards-based educational program that is based on best practices and innovation but that is also rooted in the rich traditions of our 150-year old community.

District 200 currently operates twelve schools: the Verda Dierzen Early Learning Center where all of the community's youngest children begin their education; six elementary schools serving students in grades 1-5; two middle schools for students in grades 6-8; two comprehensive high schools; and the Clay Academy, a therapeutic day school for students in grades 3-12 with special needs.

A 2006 referendum allowed the school district to complete $105 million in school construction which included new elementary, middle and high school buildings, an addition to the early learning center, and the remodeling and conversion of a former middle school to an elementary school.

District 200 provides a wide variety of programs to help every child to succeed. Early childhood education, dual language, bilingual and gifted programs, Advanced Placement classes, career and technical training, and special needs programs strengthen the general education curriculum. A districtwide focus on reading, writing and mathematics combined with the use of technology as a learning tool help prepare all students for success in and outside of the classroom.

Woodstock students excel at the state and national levels in both academics and extracurricular activities. Woodstock High School students perform very well on ACT and Advanced Placement tests, and our graduates attend some of the top colleges and universities in the nation. Elementary and middle school students consistently score above the state average on standardized achievement tests. The Verda Dierzen Early Learning Center is a recognized model for early childhood education.

Outside of the classroom, District 200 provides an extensive selection of athletic, fine arts, enrichment and extra-curricular programs. Students regularly excel at the state level in a variety of competitions, including music, mathematics, graphic arts and athletic events.

Education

Woodstock Parochial and Private Schools

Marian Central is a religious secondary high school encompassing grades nine through twelve. Established in 1959, it is coeducational and serves families throughout McHenry County.

An accredited member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Marian Central is fully recognized by the Illinois State Board of Education and the National Catholic Educational Association. Traditionally, more than 95% of Marian's graduates go on to higher education. Each year, more than 50 colleges send representatives to visit with its upperclassmen.

Marian provides its students with an education infused with Catholic Christian values designed to promote spiritual, intellectual, physical, social, and emotional development. Marian is a member of the Suburban Catholic Conference and offers competitive interscholastic athletic competition for both boys and girls.

Marian is supported by the 17 Catholic parishes in McHenry County. For more information about the school, call (815) 338-4220.

Township Government

Township Government is older than 1776. It originated in the mid-1600s, more than 100 years before our country became an independent nation.

Township government in Illinois dates back to 1787, when Congress established the Northwest Territory and designated counties and townships within the territories. When the second Illinois Constitution was adopted in 1848 it gave counties the option to include townships in their governmental structure.

A majority of Illinois counties chose the township system in a general election of 1849, among them being McHenry County, where the voters almost unanimously chose township government in a referendum in November of 1849.

A Township, as a political and geographic subdivision, is a municipal corporate body that can sue and be sued, own property, borrow money and levy taxes. The officials may act for the electorate in the Township's name when conducting business.

Townships have many duties and some permissive powers. Services expressly required of all townships include providing for welfare assistance, building and maintaining rural roads, assessment of property and preventing the spread of communicable disease. In addition to this, townships may establish libraries, medical clinics, museums, community buildings, public rest stations, mental health facilities and youth committees.

McHenry County is divided into seventeen townships. There are generally eight elected officers in each township. These are the supervisor, clerk, assessor, highway commissioner and four trustees. The term of office for each position is four years. Terms are synchronous rather than staggered. The annual meeting of the township electors is held the second Tuesday in April each year.

The Supervisor is the Chief Executive Officer of the township and is responsible for the township funds, serving as treasurer of all funds and records all transactions in an official book.

The Supervisor must file a statement of the financial status of the township with the township clerk. A summary of this report must be published annually.

One of the most important functions of the Supervisor is in the area of General Assistance. The Supervisor of General Assistance gives aid to the needy. Money used for this purpose is raised by local taxes and non-State receiving units, which applies to most of the 1,400 plus townships in Illinois. The money thus raised is used to provide food, shelter, utilities, medical care and burial whenever necessary.

Over the past 30 years, over 16,000 acres have been set aside for the pleasure of future generations.

The Conservation District was established in 1971 by the voters of McHenry County to preserve the county's natural areas, while promoting environmental education and offering outdoor recreational opportunities. Over the past 45 years, nearly 25,000 acres have been set aside for the pleasure of future generations.

People of all ages enjoy a wide range of activities such as hiking, biking, fishing, canoeing, horseback riding, snowmobiling and cross-country skiing at 33 District sites located throughout the county. Annual events include Hooked on Fishing, hosted for free during the second weekend in June in conjunction with Illinois Free Fishing days where families can try out the sport of fishing and have fun trying to hook the "big one"; cross-country candlelight skis hosted one weekend each January and February; and the Festival of the Sugar Maples, held in Early March which demonstrates how maple syrup is made.

The Conservation District publishes Landscapes, a free quarterly magazine that details the District's free educational programs, special events and other District news. To subscribe to Landscapes or for more information about District facilities, programs and events, please call the District's main office at (815) 338-6223 or visit our website at www.MCCDistrict.org.

Woodstock Parks & Recreation

Recreation Department

recreation@woodstockil.gov

Woodstock boasts one of the best park systems in the State of Illinois. As Woodstock residents do not belong to a separate Park District, all fifteen park facilities are owned by the City and maintained by the Department of Public Works. The Woodstock Recreation Department provides a wide variety of programs for all ages including sports, arts, fitness, aquatics, special events and excursions.

Twice annually, the Recreation Department publishes the City Scene, a newsletter that is sent to residents in the 60097 and 60098 zip codes. "City Scene" contains up-to-date information for the Recreation Department's programs and activities. Information regarding recreation programs, special events, Woodstock Water Works Aquatic Center, and registration procedures can also be found on our website at: www.woodstockil.gov.

The City of Woodstock Recreation Department provides a wide variety of programs for all ages, including sports, arts, fitness, aquatics, special events, and senior programs. Playing fields and courts and pavilions in the city parks are available to the public and are scheduled by the Recreation Department.

If golf is your game, then Woodstock is a golfer's haven. Woodstock boasts 2 public courses and 2 private courses. Craig Woods is a nine-hole public course that is suitable for golfers of all skill levels. The semi-private Crystal Woods Golf Club and the private Bull Valley Golf Club along with Woodstock Country Club offer challenging play and exclusive competition.

Anyone looking for a quiet place to walk or jog would find a visit to Ryder's Woods just one of the few natural reserves in Illinois. Teeming with plant and animal life, the park is one of Illinois' natural wonders and remains a popular place for a quiet afternoon.

RECREATION

Sports Organizations

Through cooperative arrangements with the City of Woodstock, residents are provided structured sports opportunities through several private leagues, clubs and organizations. To get contact information, call the Recreation Department for information on AYSO soccer, competitive soccer clubs, Little League, American Legion, girls' softball, men's fast pitch softball, men's senior baseball, girls' basketball and the Dolphins swim team.

Residents with Disabilities

The City is a member of the Northern Illinois Special Recreation Association that provides special programs for people with disabilities. Seasonal brochures are available at the Woodstock Recreation Center, 820 Lake Avenue, or call NISRA at 815-459-0737.

Woodstock Water Works Aquatic Center

815-338-4896

Woodstock Water Works, opened in 2002, features three separate pools: a 9,000 square foot, zero depth recreation pool with a double flume slide and play features in the shallow end; a 5,000 square foot, eight-lane competition pool with one-meter and three-meter diving boards; and a 1,150 square foot baby pool. Other features include a large sand tot lot, a picnic shelter and an outdoor food court.

Daily admission fees are charged or patrons may take advantage of a seasonal pool pass. Call 815-338-4363 for more information.

Built in 1889, the Woodstock Opera House was carefully restored to its “Steamboat Gothic” beauty in the mid-1970s. Managed by the City of Woodstock, the Opera House has, for over 125 years, served as an active performing arts/cultural center, meeting place and focal point of Woodstock.

The Opera House Staff also coordinates the Summer City Band concerts that celebrated their 130th consecutive season in 2014. Bookings for use of the Gazebo for weddings and other activities may be made through the Opera House office.

The Opera House’s Community Room is also available for public use and features an ongoing visual arts exhibition and a Christmas Tree Walk during the Holidays.

ON GROUNDHOG DAY...AND
EVERY OTHER DAY
We're Here for You!

Whatever the weather prediction, we're here to serve our neighbors in every season...

as we have for over 100 years! We're delighted to be a Major Event Sponsor of Groundhog Days and proud to bring the newest innovations in banking to this community. Back in 1915, customers had to come into the bank to do their transactions. Today's customers bank online, make deposits with their smartphones and get cash from ATMs across the nation. And tomorrow we'll continue to provide the latest technologies for the residents and businesses of Woodstock and all of McHenry County.

We're on your side... now and for the next 100 years!
